

International Education Week

Sept. 28-Oct. 2, 2009

Monday, September 28th

- Brown Bag Lunch Discussion-Morocco
Presenter: Hamza Jabri, UST Student
Location: Murray Herrick Center 155, 12:15 pm-1:15 pm
- International Dinner Discussion
“Building Consensus in Brazil: an Experience of Participatory Decision Making,” An invitation event
Presenter: Prof. Mariana Hernández Crespo, Associate Professor and Founder of the UST International ADR Research Network
Location: Murray Herrick Center, Rogge Room, 5:30 pm

Tuesday, September 29th

- “Poverty and Prayer”
Presenter: Gerard Straub-Director, presents his documentary film reflecting on the necessity of a deeply prayerful spirituality for confronting the evil of poverty.
Location: Murray Herrick Center 304, 11:30 am-1:15 pm

Wednesday, September 30th

- Brown Bag Lunch Discussion-Colombia
Presenter: Dr. Luz A. Saavedra, Economics
Location: Murray Herrick Center 155, 12:15 pm-1:15 pm
- “Dreaming in Morocco”
Young Moroccans talk about their dreams in a film produced by Dr. Pamela Nice, Faculty Development
Location: John Roach Center 126, 7:00 pm
Moroccan treats will be provided

Thursday, October 1st

- International Fair
Location: Campus Square, 11:30 am–1:30 pm
International Performances held in Scooter’s

Friday, October 2nd

- Brown Bag Lunch Discussion-Brazil
Presenters: Anderson Ayres & Diana Baul-UST Students
Location: Murray Herrick Center 155, 12:15 pm-1:15 pm
- Salsa/International Game Night
Location: Scooter’s, 8:00 pm-11:00 pm

In celebration of the Opus Prize honorees, International Education Week is highlighting the countries of Brazil, Colombia, and Morocco.