

The American Culture and Difference Program invites you to a talk by University of Minnesota history professor Dr. Erika Lee

ANGEL ISLAND: IMMIGRANT GATEWAY TO AMERICA

University of St. Thomas
College of Arts and Sciences

Thursday, October 20
3:30 - 5:00 p.m.
Room 126
John Roach Center

For more information, contact the American Culture and Difference Program at 651-972-5649

For accommodations regarding accessibility, please contact Kim Schuman in the Enhancement Programs and Disability Services Office at 651-962-6315.

Erika Lee is an American historian and Director of the Asian American Studies Program at the University of Minnesota. She is the author or co-author of the award winning books Angel Island: Immigrant Gateway to America, (with Judy Yung, Oxford University Press, 2010) and At America's Gates:

Chinese Immigration During the Exclusion Era, 1882-1943 (University of North Carolina Press, 2003). She has given invited lectures to universities, media outlets, and community organizations throughout the United States and Canada. She is currently working on Asian Americas, a global history of Asians in the Americas.

