

Interfaith Retreat

Open to All Students

Sponsored by the Jay Phillips Center for Interfaith Learning and co-sponsored by the campus ministry offices at the College of Saint Benedict, Saint John's University, and the University of St. Thomas

9:30am, Saturday, Nov. 12 to 2:00pm, Sunday, Nov. 13
Episcopal House of Prayer
Saint John's University
Collegetown, Minnesota

Cost: $39 includes food, shared bedroom, and transportation

Facilitated by Professor Susan Stabile, this retreat for students of the College of Saint Benedict/Saint John's University and the University of St. Thomas will focus on spiritual dynamics that operate across different faith traditions. It will foster interfaith learning and experiences of prayer and contemplation from several different religions and will allow time for sharing the fruits of those experiences.

Susan Stabile, J.D., a professor of law at the University of St. Thomas, is a spiritual director who often leads retreats and other programs of spiritual formation. She recently finished writing a book that adapts Tibetan Buddhist meditations for Christians.
